[NUMB. 1045.]

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY June 20th, to THURSDAY June 27th, 1754.

LONDON, March 16.

IT begins to look very ſuſpicious, that the quarrels between the eccleſiaſticks and parliaments of France, have been, in part at leaſt, kept up to amuſe ſome of their neighbours, while meaſures were taken to proſecute quarrels of another kind, of which they ſeem to make it no longer a ſecret, that the month of April will ſhew us their effects.

March 29. We are ſtill aſſured, that his grace the duke of Newcaſtle, will continue firſt lord commiſſioner of the treaſury.

That Mr. Legge, Lord Dupplin, Lord Barnard, and Mr. Nugent, are appointed lords of the treaſury; and the firſt of theſe gentlemen, chancellor of the exchequer.

Sir George Lyttleton, is appointed cofferer to his majeſty's houſhold.

George Grenville, Eſq; treaſurer of the navy.

Charles Townſhend, Eſq; one of the lords of the admiralty.

Lord Hillſborough, comptroller of the houſhold.

Richard Edgecumbe, Eſq; a lord of trade and plantations.

March 30. THOMAS PITT, Eſq; member of parliament for Oakhampton, is appointed Governor of South-Carolina.

Two men of war are ordered to be fitted out to join the ſloops of war appointed to go to the Weſt Indies, for a further protection of the Britiſh ſettlements in thoſe parts.

Yeſterday it was reported, that the right hon. the Earl Gower, had reſigned the office of lord privy-ſeal.

And that his grace the Duke of Marlborough, was appointed lord privy-ſeal in his lordſhip's room.

April 2. This day there was a council at St. James's, on extraordinary affairs.

And that John Campbell, Eſq; one of the lords of the treaſury, has reſigned.

Lord Barnard is created Earl of Darlington.

London, April 3. The king has been pleaſed to appoint Philip Auſtruther, Eſq; lieutenant-general of his majeſty's forces, to be governor of Kinſale and Charles fort, in Ireland, in the room of Col. Robert Fraſer, deceaſed.

Williamſburg in Virginia, May 3. On wedneſday arrived in Hampton road, the Jamaica ſloop of war, Capt. Du Bois, from South-Carolina, having on board an independent company, which we hear will ſet off for Ohio next week.

Philadelphia, May 13. We hear from the weſtern frontiers on Ohio, that moſt of our traders, by the friendly aſſiſtance of the Half-king and the other Indians, eſcaped with their ſkins and goods, and did not fall into the hands of the French, as had been apprehended.

New-York, June 3. The Centaur, the hon. Dudley Diggs, Eſq; commander, weigh'd anchor on tueſday laſt, and ſet ſail from the watering-place near the Narrows, on her voyage to Virginia, having on board two of the independent companies from this garriſon, deſigned for the Ohio expedition.

From our correſpondent in Albany, by the laſt boats from thence, we are told, that about 12 or 14 days ago, a trading Indian, being in company and drinking with, a number of negroes belonging to that city, they had, from a difference ariſing in converſation, beat him to ſo unmerciful a degree, that he died ſoon after: That the Indians of the tribe to which he belonged had aſſembled together and came down to demand their brother; and on being informed of the affair, inſiſted upon having delivered to them the perſon or perſons who had murdered him: That upon their being told of the negroes having abſconded, and ſuppoſing the information to be a pretext, they had threatened the city and inhabitants with future conſequences; but had, however, come to this reſolution, to remain eaſy until his honour governor De Lancey, arrived in Albany to negociate the treaty, to be held at that place the 18th inſtant, with the ſeveral tribes backwards; before whom the crime is to be properly repreſented, and juſtice (the Indians did not doubt) would be as properly decree'd.

New York, June 10. On friday laſt embark'd for Albany, the Hon. James De Lancey, Eſq; governor of this province, in order to hold the treaty with the Indians on friday next in that city.

On wedneſday laſt came to town from Pennſylvania, the Hon. John Penn, Eſq; Richard Peters, Iſaac Norris, and Benjamin Franklin, Eſqrs. commiſſioners appointed by the governor of that province, to aſſiſt at the approaching treaty at Albany. As did likewiſe the next day, the Hon. Benjamin Taſker, Eſq; and Major Abraham Barnes, commiſſioners from the government of Maryland. And, yeſterday they embark'd on board ſloops provided for the purpoſe, and ſail'd with a favourable Wind for Albany, each with their reſpective government's preſents for the Indians.

CHARLES-TOWN, June 27.

For ſome Days paſt, various Reports have prevail'd, (which have greatly alarmed both Town and Country) of the Small-Pox being broke out at ſeveral Plantations, and in particular at Santee: But, upon the beſt and moſt diligent Inquiry we could make (and we have taken ſome Pains to come at the Truth) we do not find, that there is any real Foundation to give Credit to any of them: Four or Five Negroes indeed have had a cutaneous Eruption, (or Breaking out of the Skin) which is common of whom have ſuffered pretty much by the late dry Weather, in their Indico, and early Corn, as they muſt alſo have done in their Rice, had it continued.

On Monday laſt embark'd, on board the Charles-Town, Capt. Schermerhorn, for New-York, the Hon. John Cleland, Eſq; a Member of His Majeſty's Council; and on board the Fancy, Capt. Robeſon, for Philadelphia, the Rev. Mr. Langhorne; both for the Recovery of their Healths.

The ſame Day one of Mr. Croft's Wenches was burnt, purſuant to her Sentence, ſome favourable Circumſtances appearing for the other, ſhe was reprieved.

The Ship Friendſhip, of Briſtol, John late Maſter, which ſail'd from hence on the 22d of May, laden with Rice, and bound for Liſbon, put into New-York the 10th Inſtant: The Captain died ſoon after ſhe went out, and the Ship ſprung a Leak, and made ſo much Water, that the People could ſcarcely keep her from ſinking: The ſecond Mate died through exceſſive Fatigue in pumping, and Mr. Crawford the firſt Mate carried her in.

On Friday laſt Mr. Tucker ſpoke with the Ship ——, Capt. Campbell, from Boſton for Cape-Fear, off Bull's-Iſland, all well on board: She had been out 32 Days.
